STATEMENT BY THE CHAIRMAN

The Chair understands from the deliberations of the IFC that the Secretariat has provided participating States with assurances that the funds required for this activity could be found from within existing resources and that the identification of these funds should be carried out before the final billing for this year. If these funds cannot be found, it is the understanding of the participating States that billing for this activity, if required, will not take place before the end of December 2001, i.e., with the final billing for the year 2001 and after the Secretary General has provided the IFC with appropriate information.

This statement will be attached to the Journal of the day.
