INTERPRETATIVE STATEMENT UNDER PARAGRAPH 79 (CHAPTER 6) OF THE FINAL RECOMMENDATIONS OF THE HELSINKI CONSULTATIONS

By the Delegation of Belarus:

“In connection with the adoption of the Decision on Strengthening the Effectiveness of the OSCE, the Delegation of the Republic of Belarus has been authorized to make the following interpretative statement with regard to paragraph 2 of that decision.

The fact that Belarus has joined the consensus on this decision does not mean that it agrees with the working methods of the OSCE Office for Democratic Institutions and Human Rights (ODIHR).

The Belarusian delegation proceeds from the understanding that when preparing the report for the Ministerial Council meeting in 2006 the ODIHR will take into account all the comments and proposals made and will also answer all the questions of all participating States without exception.

Belarus believes that the report of the ODIHR to the Ministerial Council should contain as integral elements:

- A comparative analysis of election laws and practices in all OSCE participating States;
- A list of objective criteria for the assessment of elections;
- A methodology for election monitoring, based on the recommendations of the Panel of Eminent Persons and aimed at ensuring objectivity, transparency, professionalism and equal treatment of all participating States.

In the event that the ODIHR report does not meet these requirements, Belarus will not consider itself bound by its conclusions and proposals, and reserves the right to raise the question of the Office's work again in the political bodies of the OSCE.

We request that this interpretative statement be attached to the journal of the day.”
