

Why is good governance important?

- Reduces risk to the supply chain
- Increases certainty
- Helps support a risk based approach to regulatory controls
- Speeds things up
- Reduces cost
- It generates growth
- Everyone can benefit

The role of the private sector

- Know your supply chain
- Act with integrity
- Be proactive
- Compliance as a mindset
- Partnerships with the public sector
- Be part of the solution and not the problem

The DHL Impact

- DP DHL – Living Responsibility
- Cultural impact within DHL- CIS
- Have the right people in place
- Proactively targeting suspect shipments
- Partnering regulators and policy makers
- Peace of mind for our customers and stakeholders

Actions – What do we do?

- Work with regional and global trade bodies on efficiencies in the supply chain reducing red tape and increasing economic growth
- Via strong compliance and academic research, DHL aims to be the go to source for Policy Makers and Thought Leaders.
- Use of our global reach to offer global picture of supply chain efficiency.
- We are more flexible in developing green/efficient solutions for our customers' supply chains.

Impact

- Greater certainty for Customers
- Positive impact on trading environment
- First choice for piloting innovative solutions for improving supply chain efficiency

