Permanent Council Decision No. 524, 19 December 2002 (PC.DEC/524)

The decision to establish a CSCE Monitoring Mission in the former Yugoslav Republic of Macedonia was taken in mid-1992 in the context of the efforts to extend the European Community Monitoring Mission (ECMM) to neighbouring countries of the Federal Republic of Yugoslavia to help avoid the spread of tension to their territories. A decision to explore with authorities in Skopje the possibility of dispatching similar missions under CSCE auspices was taken at the 15th Committee of Senior Officials (CSO) Meeting on 14 August 1992 (15-CSO/Journal No. 2, Annex 1).

The Steering Group on the Yugoslav Crisis worked out on 27 October 1992, the “Modalities and Financial Implications for the CSCE Spillover Monitor Mission to Skopje” which were adopted by the open-ended ad hoc Group on 28 October 1992, and approved by the 17th Meeting of the Committee of Senior Officials (CSO) on 6 November 1992 (17-CSO/Journal No. 2, Annex 3).

“Articles of Understanding Concerning CSCE Spillover Monitor Mission” were exchanged on 7 November 1992 by means of a letter from the Macedonian Minister of Foreign Relations, Mr. Denko Maleski, to the Chairman-in-Office of the Council of Ministers of the CSCE.

2. Mandate

According to the Modalities and Financial Implications as approved at the 17th CSO Meeting, the objective of the Mission is to monitor developments along the borders of the Host Country with Serbia and in other areas of the Host Country which may suffer from spillover of the conflict in the former Yugoslavia, in order to promote respect for territorial integrity and the maintenance of peace, stability and security; and to help prevent possible conflict in the region.

The above objective is specified in a mandate consisting of the following tasks:

- continue dialogue with the Governmental Authorities of the Host Party;
- establish contacts with representatives of political parties and other organizations, and with ordinary citizens;
- conduct trips to assess the level of stability and the possibility of conflict and unrest;
- engage in other activities compatible with the CSCE goals of the Mission as defined above;
- maintain a high profile in the country;
- in case of incidents, assist in establishing the facts.

The Permanent Council, in a special session on the Kosovo crisis on 11 March 1998, decided (PC.DEL/218) to temporarily enhance the monitoring capabilities of the OSCE Spillover Monitor Mission to Skopje in order to allow for adequate observation of the borders with Kosovo, FRY, and prevention of possible crisis spillover effects. The Head of Mission will report regularly on his observations.

3. Tasks

On 22 March 2001, the Permanent Council, noting the reports of the Mission indicating an upsurge of violent actions by ethnic Albanian armed groups in the area of the northern border regions in the former Yugoslav Republic of Macedonia, decided to increase the size of the Mission by eight international personnel for a period of six months. “The additional staff members will work particularly in the border area, with a view to strengthening the capabilities of the Mission to monitor developments along the border and report, and perform other duties in accordance with the Mission’s mandate.”

On 7 June 2001, the Permanent Council decided to further increase the size of the Mission by ten international personnel (totaling 26).

On 6 September 2001, the Permanent Council decided to further increase the size of the Mission by 25 international personnel (totaling 51). “They will monitor and report regularly on the security situation in the host State, including: the situation in the northern border areas including illicit arms trafficking; the humanitarian situation, including the return of refugees and internally displaced persons and trafficking in human beings; the situation in sensitive places with communities not in the majority; and cases of incidents and recurrence of hostilities. They will not monitor the arms collection process or conduct operations aimed exclusively at observing compliance with the ceasefire.”

On 28 September 2001, the Permanent Council decided to further increase the personnel of the Mission on the basis of the existing mandate, by 72 international confidence-building monitors and 60 police advisers and 17 police trainers; as well as 10 international to deal with administrative and support matters:

“The monitors will contribute to the maintenance of stability and security in the country and to the building of general confidence amongst the population. They will report regularly on the security situation, including: the situation in the northern border areas including illicit arms trafficking; the humanitarian situation, including the return of refugees and internally displaced persons and trafficking in human beings; the situation in sensitive areas; and on cases of incidents and recurrence of hostilities.”

The police advisers were deployed to the sensitive areas, concurrently with the phased redeployment of the national police. “They will have no executive authority and are not to be seen as replacement for the national police or other lawful security forces in the host country. Their role would be to assist in ensuring a phased and co-ordinated redeployment by the national police. The police trainers will assist in the implementation of the Police Academy project.”

In addition to police matters and confidence-building activities, the Mission has been particularly active in media issues, decentralization and support to the Ombudsman Institution.

2. Tasks

According to the original Modalities and Financial Implications approved at the 18th CSO Meeting on 13 December 1992<sup>2</sup>, the objective of the Mission was to promote negotiations between the conflicting parties in Georgia which are aimed at reaching a peaceful political settlement.

At the 14th Meeting of the Permanent Committee on 29 March 1994, new Modalities were decided for an expanded CSCE Mission to Georgia, based on recommendations submitted by the Personal Representative of the Chairman-in-Office in accordance with the Decisions of the Rome Council, which provided for a strengthening of the Mission. The original objective was complemented by a series of new objectives, namely to promote respect for human rights and assist in democratic institution building throughout the country; to monitor and promote free media principles; to facilitate co-operation with and among the parties concerned and, with their consent, to monitor the joint peacekeeping forces established under the Sochi Agreement of 24 June 1992, in order to assess whether their activities are carried out in conformity with CSCE principles, in particular those mentioned in chapter II, 3 of the Decisions of the Rome Council Meeting.

The above objectives for the expanded Mission are specified in a mandate consisting of the following points:

1) In relation to the Georgian-Ossetian conflict:

- facilitate the creation of a broader political framework, in which a lasting political settlement (...) can be achieved on the basis of CSCE principles and commitments;

- intensify discussions with all parties to the conflict, including through the organisation of round tables, in order to identify and seek to eliminate sources of tension and extend political reconciliation throughout the area of conflict.

Make recommendations regarding the early convening of an international conference under CSCE auspices and with the participation of the United Nations, aimed at the resolution of the conflict, including the definition of the political status of Southern Ossetia;

- in pursuit of the monitoring role concerning the joint peacekeeping forces, establish appropriate forms of contact with the military commanders of the forces within the overall context of the CSCE negotiating efforts, gather information on the military situation, investigate violations of the existing cease-fire and call local commanders' attention to possible political implications of specific military actions;
- be actively involved in the reconvened Joint Control Commission in order to facilitate co-operation with and among the parties concerned;
- establish contact with local authorities and representatives of the population and maintain a visible CSCE presence throughout the area.

2) In relation to the Georgian-Abkhaz conflict:

- ensure liaison with the United Nations operations in Abkhazia, in order to follow events closely and report regularly to the CSCE, inter alia with a view to facilitating the participation of the representative of the Chairman-in-Office, at the invitation of the United Nations, to the negotiations carried out under United Nations auspices.

3) In relation to Georgia as a whole:

- promote respect for human rights and fundamental freedoms and assist in the development of legal and democratic institutions and processes, including providing advice on the elaboration of a new constitution, the implementation of a legislation on citizenship and the establishment of an independent judiciary as well as monitoring elections;
- co-ordinate these activities with the CSCE High Commissioner on National Minorities and the ODIHR and co-operate with the Council of Europe, keeping also in touch with other international organizations active in Georgia in this field.

In addition, at the 550th Plenary Meeting on 14 April 2005, the OSCE Permanent Council tasked the OSCE Mission to Georgia to implement the Training Assistance Programme (TAP) (PC.DEL/108/05/Rev.6) “in order to support the Georgian border guards in strengthening their border-management capacities and capabilities”.

3. Deployment

The Mission started to work on 3 December 1992. The MoU with the Government of Georgia was signed on 23 January 1993, and the MoU with the leadership of the Republic of South Ossetia was agreed by an exchange of letters on 1 March 1993.

The Mission operates throughout Georgia from the Headquarters established in Tbilisi. The Modalities of 29 March 1994 provide for a branch office in Tskhinvali, which became operational on 22 April 1997.

In 1997, a Memorandum of Understanding was signed between the OSCE and the UN Human Rights Office in Abkhazia, Georgia where one (at times two) OSCE officer has been working since. The MoU enables the OSCE Mission to Georgia to implement the relevant parts of its mandate relating to the monitoring of the human rights situation in Abkhazia, while supporting the activities of the UN Human Rights Office in the region.

From 15 December 1999 until 31 December 2004 the Mission was also mandated to observe and report on movement across parts of the border between Georgia and the Russian Federation. While the area of operation of the Border Monitoring Mission (BMO) first only covered the border between Georgia and the Chechen Republic of the Russian Federation, it was extended in subsequent years also to the Ingush and Dagestan segments of the Georgian-Russian border. The BMO then operated from its Head Office in Tbilisi, a Forward Supply Point in Telavi, eight Patrol Bases in Sno, Shatili, Girevi, Omalo, Napareuli, Kvareli, Akhalsopeli and Kabali as well as one Permanent Patrol in Assa.

In the framework of the Training Assistance Programme, since June 2005 the Mission is carrying out training for the Georgian border guards at four OSCE training centres in Kazbegi, Lagodekhi, Lilo and Omalo.

4. Duration

2. Tasks

The mandate, as contained in the CSO decision of 14 August 1992 and reiterated in the MoU, consisted of four parts:

- promote dialogue between authorities concerned and representatives of the populations and communities in the three regions [Kosovo, Sandjak and Vojvodina];
- collect information on all aspects relevant to violations of human rights and fundamental freedoms and promote solutions to such problems;
- establish contact points for solving problems that might be identified;
- assist in providing information on relevant legislation on human rights, protection of minorities, free media and democratic elections.

The Modalities and Financial Implications, adopted by the CSO on 6 November 1992, gave a more detailed account of the tasks for each of the three regions.

3. Deployment

The Missions started their work on 8 September 1992; the Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) was signed on 28 October 1992 in Belgrade.

<sup>13</sup> As worked out and preliminarily agreed upon by the CSCE Ad Hoc Group.

The Mission to Kosovo was based in Pristina (with permanent presence in Pec and Prizren), the Mission to Sandjak in Novi Pazar (with a permanent presence in Priepolje), and the Mission to Vojvodina in Subotica. The Missions had a common office in Belgrade.

The Missions were withdrawn in July 1993 after expiration of the MoU, since the FRY authorities refused the OSCE's (then the CSCE) request to prolong it.

In a special session on Kosovo on 11 March 1998, the Permanent Council decided (PC.DEC/218) to call on FRY authorities:

To accept without preconditions, an immediate return of the OSCE missions of long duration to Kosovo, Sandjak and Vojvodina, noting the return of these missions as essential for future participation in the OSCE by the FRY.

In its decision No. 401 of 11 January 2001 the Permanent Council, taking into account United Nations Security Council Resolution 1244 and welcoming the invitation of the Government of the Federal Republic of Yugoslavia for an OSCE Mission decided to establish an OSCE Mission to the Federal Republic of Yugoslavia. With this decision, the OSCE Missions of Long Duration in Kosovo, Sandjak and Vojvodina were formally closed.

4. Duration

According to the MoU the duration of the Missions was limited to an initial period of 6 months from the beginning of their activities; extension of this period was subject to mutual agreement by the Parties. In a Protocol signed by the Government of the FRY (Serbia and Montenegro) and the Head of Mission on 29 April 1993, the period was extended until 28 June 1993.

There was no further agreement on extension thereafter.

5. Composition

In the Modalities and Financial Implications, the size of the Missions was limited to 12 members, to be supplemented as required. An increase to 20 members was authorized at the 17th CSO Meeting in November 1992 and a doubling to 40 members was authorized by the CSO Vienna Group in January 1993. In reality however, the Missions never exceeded a total of 20 members.

The last appointed Head of Mission was Ambassador Tore Bøgh, Norway. Afterwards, the functions of the Head of Mission were carried out by the Chairman-in-Office.

2. Tasks

In its Decision No. 259 of 15 October 1998 the Permanent Council, acting within the framework of the United Nations Security Council Resolution No. 1199, declared the preparedness of the OSCE to embark upon verification activities related to compliance of all parties in Kosovo with the requirements set forth by the international community with regard to the solution of the crisis in Kosovo. The Permanent Council supported the Chairman-in-Office's efforts to arrange with the FRY authorities for the OSCE to give its contribution to the peaceful solution of the crisis in Kosovo.

In its Decision No. 263 of 25 October 1998, the Permanent Council decided to establish the Kosovo Verification Mission (KVM) in accordance with the mandate contained in the agreement signed by the CiO (CIO.GAL/65/98).

The Agreement on the Kosovo Verification Mission signed by the Chairman-in-Office of the OSCE and the Foreign Minister of the Federal Republic of Yugoslavia, in part II General Responsibilities, Roles and Missions, enumerates the following tasks:

- when invited or upon request, the Verification Mission will accompany police units in Kosovo as they perform their normal policing roles;
- assist UNHCR, ICRC and other international organizations in facilitating the return of displaced persons to their homes (...). The Mission will verify the level of co-operation and support provided by the FRY and its entities to the humanitarian organizations and accredited NGOs (...);
- As the political settlement defining Kosovo's self-government is achieved and implementation begins, the Mission Director will assist, both with his own resources and with augmented OSCE implementation support, in areas such as elections supervision, assistance in the establishment of Kosovo institutions and police force development in Kosovo;
- The Mission Director will receive periodic updates from the relevant authorities concerning eventual allegations of abusive actions by military or police personnel and status of disciplinary or legal actions against individuals implicated in such abuses;

- (...) report instances of progress and/or non-compliance or lack of full co-operation from any side to the OSCE and other organizations.

3. Deployment

The OSCE Kosovo Verification Mission (KVM) reached a strength of approximately 1500 international staff by February 1999 but was unable to carry out the full scope of the tasks allocated under the FRY-OSCE Agreement. The security situation in Kosovo during this period was characterized as tense. Following a steady deterioration in the security situation in the Province, the OSCE CiO, Norwegian Foreign Minister Knut Vollebaek withdrew the KVM on 20 March 1999. The KVM was then temporarily based in Skopje, the capital of the former Yugoslav Republic of Macedonia. The bulk of its Mission members were repatriated. The Mission was temporarily organised as a Mission “Core”, responsible for administration and planning for the re-entry of an OSCE Mission to Kosovo; a Task Force in Albania to assist UNHCR with the refugee crisis and to conduct human rights investigations; and a further Task Force in the former Yugoslav Republic of Macedonia performing similar functions. The KVM was later dissolved and the Task Force for Kosovo created in its stead by PC.DEC/296 on 8 June 1999, primarily tasked with preparing for re-deployment to Kosovo and continuing to assist the UN and other international organizations. The Task Force for Kosovo was dissolved on 1 July 1999 and replaced by the OSCE Mission in Kosovo by PC.DEC/305.

4. Duration

In its Decision No. 263, paragraph 3, the Permanent Council decided to establish the KVM for one year, with extensions upon the request of either the OSCE Chairman-in-Office or the FRY government. The Delegation of the Russian Federation formulated an interpretative statement to paragraph 3 of the Decision, attached to the Decision. The KVM was dissolved and the Task Force for Kosovo created in its stead by PC.DEC/296 on 8 June 1999.

5. Composition

The Agreement of 16 October 1998 foresaw in part IV the following structure for the Kosovo Verification Mission:

A Director, together with headquarters staff to be determined by Verification Mission requirements.

2000 unarmed verifiers from OSCE member states will be permitted. Headquarters and support staff included in this total. The Mission may be augmented with technical experts provided by OSCE.

A headquarters in Pristina.

Field presence in locations around Kosovo to be determined by the Mission Director.

A small liaison office in Belgrade.

Part V of the Agreement Field Presence established the following provisions:

Coordination Centres will be established in the capital of each opstina in Kosovo with specific areas of responsibility, under the Mission Director located in Pristina.

Many opstina coordination centres will have one or more sub-stations in smaller towns/villages in the opstina. The number and location of sub-stations will vary from opstina to opstina, depending on the verification environment and past conflict situation.

As described above the composition of the KVM subsequently evolved during the Spring and early Summer of 1999 into those now found in the OSCE Mission in Kosovo within the UNMiK structure.

The OSCE Representative to the Joint Committee on the Skrunda Radar Station

1. Basic decisions

On 30 April 1994, Latvia and Russia signed an agreement on the Legal Status of the Skrunda Radar Station During its temporary Operation and Dismantling.

Article 14 of the above Agreement provides for the establishment of a Joint Committee, consisting of an equal number of representatives of both Parties and a representative or representatives from an international organization of which both Parties are members, to monitor and co-ordinate the implementation. The Joint Committee shall discuss and, on the basis of consensus, decide upon any question in connection with the implementation of the Agreement.

In addition, Article 15 of the same Agreement calls for the holding of periodic and challenge inspections by the OSCE (then CSCE) in order to monitor the implementation.

At the 27th CSO Meeting on 15 June 1994, participating States welcomed requests made by Latvia and Russia for OSCE (then CSCE) assistance in the implementation of the above Agreement and asked the Permanent Committee to work out the necessary modalities.

On 30 June 1994, the Permanent Committee requested the Chairman-in-Office to appoint an OSCE (then CSCE) Representative and an Alternate Representative to the Joint Committee established by Article 14 of the above Agreement.

At its 9th Meeting on 23 February 1995, the Permanent Council decided on the Terms of Reference for an OSCE inspection regime (PC.DEC/16). The decision provides for the establishment of a list of no more than 30 persons from which the members of the inspection teams are chosen by the Chairman-in-Office.

Upon conclusion of the temporary functioning of the Skrunda Radar Station, the Permanent Council, at its 176th Plenary Meeting on 9 July 1998, decided on the Modification of the Rules and Modalities for the Implementation of Inspections, setting out the tasks of inspections in the dismantling period (PC.DEC/242).

2. Tasks

The tasks of the Representative were as follows:

- to monitor and co-ordinate the implementation of the Agreement;
- to initiate and participate in discussions on questions in connection with the implementation of the Agreement and to participate in decisions taken by the Joint Committee on the basis of consensus;
- to participate in establishing the procedural and organizational modalities for the functioning of the Joint Committee;

- to report regularly to the Permanent Committee through the Chairman-in-Office.

3. Deployment

4. Duration

The duration of the Representative's work corresponds to the duration of the work of the Joint Committee. The dismantling of the Skrunda Radar Station was confirmed by an OSCE Inspection Team on 19 October 1999. In total, 12 periodic inspections were conducted. The final meeting of the Joint Committee took place on 22 October 1999 at which it was decided to disband the Committee by 31 October 1999.

5. Composition

The OSCE Representatives were: Mr. Jörgen Andersen of Denmark (from April 1995 to July 1998) and Col. Jürgen W. Hübschen of Germany (from 1 August 1998).

3. Deployment

The OSCE AG to Chechnya began working in Grozny on 26 April 1995 and operated from there until 16 December 1998, when the AG's international staff was evacuated to Moscow due to the deteriorating security situation. In subsequent months, the AG conducted several working visits to Grozny. Renewed armed hostilities required the remaining AG local staff to be evacuated to Ingushetia in September 1999. In December 2000 local staff moved to the new AG office in Znamenskoye in the north of Chechnya.

Since the beginning of 2001 the immediate priority of the AG's activities was to ensure the return of its international staff to Chechnya. The negotiation process that began in 2000 to solve technical problems impeding the AG's return, led to the signing of a Memorandum of Understanding on Security between the AG and the Ministry of Justice of the Russian Federation. On 15 June 2001, after almost two and a half years of evacuation, the AG's international staff returned to Chechnya.

The mandate was not further extended and the administrative closure of the Assistance Group has been completed on 21 March 2003.

5. Composition
