

SUPPLEMENTARY HUMAN DIMENSION MEETING ON DEMOCRATIC LAWMAKING

6-7 November 2008
HOFBURG VIENNA

General Guidelines

The modalities of the meeting are set out in accordance with the decision of the Permanent Council (PC.DEC/476, 23 May 2002)

1. Aim of the Meeting

The SHDM will examine lawmaking process as an essential element of democratic governance. This meeting will provide an opportunity to identify those aspects of lawmaking that would need improvement from the viewpoint of meeting the democratic values as well as will show examples of good practices.

The meeting will focus on the following three areas:

- Lawmaking in a democratic system of government: transparency and efficiency
- Ensuring inclusiveness in democratic lawmaking
- Access to law.

Recommendations may be addressed to the participating States, the OSCE as a whole, OSCE institutions including the Office for Democratic Institutions and Human Rights, as well as the OSCE field operations, or other inter-governmental or nongovernmental organizations, as well as other civil society actors and National Human Rights Institutions in OSCE participating States.

1. Participation

Representatives of the OSCE participating States, OSCE Institutions, and OSCE field operations, representatives of international governmental organizations, representatives of non-governmental organizations and other civil society actors will participate in the Meeting.

The 'Partners for Co-operation' are invited to attend and contribute with respect to their co-operation and links with the OSCE in the field.

2. Guidelines for the Debates

The intention is to develop a free-flowing discussion based on the keynote speeches, introductory remarks, background information and written statements circulated in advance or during the Meeting. To this end, formal interventions in the form of prepared statements are not envisaged in the course of the Meeting and are discouraged.

Prepared statements, background documentation, comments or written materials may be submitted in advance for circulation by the Documents Distribution Centre.
